“ Michael will be greatly missed at RSWR by all those who knew him. He was our encourager, prayer partner, and friend. His smile would light up a room on your darkest day. Michael could sing every song we sang after hearing it one time. He loved Debbie and I and we loved him. Rest easy Michael!
Heaven is sounding sweeter all the time.

“ I loved my Daddy, I'll never forget the memories that I have of him building card castles, him sitting me across the room, giving me a remote control truck and telling me to go for it. After all his hard work of building it, I'd have that thing full speed ahead lol. Him and I got a kick out of it every time. I remember us playing darts, and taking me bowling. I remember the time that he took my brother and I fishing, I got a huge bite on my line, had a BIG croaker fish, and when it bit my hook, I said Sh'+ ! I was pretty little then, Daddy and Frank both laughed soooo hard! I was embarrassed because I was little. But I look back now and that memory was epic!
I remember the time that my brother Frank and I stayed the night with him, watching wrestling for hours, all of us enjoying EVERY minute! Then after we would play wrestle and play fight. We would jump on the bed and try to tackle him, he'd catch us and toss us back down. We had the time of our lives!

I remember the day he walked me down the aisle, most people would say I dragged him because I was so excited for my big day lol, but I am so very thankful that I had that opportunity.

Tonight my husband and I went driving around, and we rode past an old place of work of his. It was so hard for me to hold it together, I forgot it was there, until I saw it, it took my breath away. I know he is so much better now. Singing, dancing, being a natural comedian, and maybe even playing a few pranks. I'm sure he's got his new teeth too. He loved fast cars, dogs, wrestling, Nascar and family. I'm going to miss my daddy so much. I was with him when he took his last breath telling him it was ok to go. He was so tired of that body. He was ready for his new one. When he left, he raised his arms up! Fly high daddy, I'll miss you here, but I know you'll always watch over us. Hugs and kisses dad. Jillian, James and I love you.

“ My Brother Michael was the best big Brother. He was kind, respectful and a humble man. I am beyond blessed to have him for a big Brother. He taught me so much that I have taken for granted. He is heaven with a brand new body. He told me he was going to see our Dad and Sister when he arrived in heaven. He taught me through all of this to be a better person.

“ We were young and in love, and married a short time after. You are the father of my children. We stayed close and always kept each other at heart. The kids and I will miss you dearly. Rest peacefully Michael.. hold a place in Heaven for us.. Until we see you again...
