“ Our buddy our friend , just don't wanna can't believe we all lost someone so special so fast . My name is Jeramie Abbott . Rick and I had grown tight over the last 3 years land surveying together and it's been a great experience to know him . He was very caring and much like a 3rd father figure to me . Invited me over for thanksgiving dinners and drove me to see my first concert after him winning tickets for two on 106.9 and we had a lot of fun seeing Joan Jett & heart . He loved trout stream fishing and being with Cris and the dog more than anything oils to wait to get home. Always told heartwarming deep detailed stories of time spent with Mom, cris, Tim, Corey, Darrel, Florida fishing buds Virginia diner Disney and many many more .always air finger picked the song shelter ever time radio played No matter how much in pain always greeted everyone every morning with good morning sunshine “. Many cold wet windy hot irritable poison ivy smothered may fly swatting mosquito biting rainy days we spent together falling down up down hills swinging a machete I will miss him deeply . Just one more fishing story would be nice to hear even if I've already heard it twice Id do anything to hear it again. I've got few of his sharpen pencils and work gloves little things I just can't take out of the work truck yet may never . I'm terribly sorry for everyone who has known and spent time with him and recently lost this great guy .. he was the best of the best a friend could get . Will be missed by many anyone who ever had a chance to know him for any amount time knew he was the greatest 100% .

“ I'm so sorry Rick left us this early. Whenever I saw Rick he would meet me with a smile and a hand shake. First question was "cathin' any fish?" Then the fish stories would begin. Some stretching the truth each time told. The man loved to cook. He shared alot of recipes with me. I know one thing, he loved Chris with all he had. It was apparent his world revolved around her. He like too many of my Pub family will be sorely missed. Rest in peace brother.
