“ I have had the Pleasure of having Ronald in my life for 46 years. He was Kind, Smart, Funny, & Was “On Of a Kind” ! His Mutley laugh I will always remember, always with a Loud Wooooo at the end! He called me “T”, which is now what many call me to this day. He Loved his Son, My nephew Brandon, with his whole heart. He never said it, but he was So Proud Of Him. He loved his Grandchildren very much:) Every time I visited Ronald he would yell “No one is home, go away T”!! Lmao I will miss him until the day we meet again! Love You Ronald :)

“ Ronald was a childhood friend. Our families would meet several times during the year where Albert and my father (Jessie) enjoyed listening to the Sunday afternoon Winston Cup Series Racing. Our mothers, Joyce and Elsie, always had a good time laughing, talking of days gone by, and keeping up on the latest news from Danville. It is with much sadness in hearing of Ronald's passing. I wish his family well and offer my sincerest condolences. Jerry Lyle
